

Rebecca Nissly

Rebecca and Rodney have three children at MCDS, Kara (7th), Abigail (4th) and Shane (1st). They own and operate a poultry farm (layer hens) outside of Mount Joy. Rebecca works part-time as the Director of Finance at Community Bible Church (Marietta) where they are also members. Rebecca's degree is in Business Administration with a concentration in finance. She has worked in the fields of banking, financial planning, accounting and non-profit financial administration. She enjoys volunteering at school and church, reading, writing, being creative in general, and visiting new places. She is also very active with The LAM Foundation and frequently participates in medical research.
